were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Y.C. Yuh of Berkeley, who hosted a Cantonese dinner in San Francisco.

DANNY LORENZO, who is well known in Albany, is the bar manager in the new, elegant "Californian" restaurant and cocktail lounge on the third floor of the Great Western Building in Berkeley. Alex Christ, maitre d', said they now have facilities for groups of up to 160 for banquets and parties, will have another soon.

BERT HAESLOOP is married to Kay and Kay is the name of his sister. It's Sister Kay not Wife Kay who is writing the Senior Citizen column now.

JIM MURROW, son of Jack and Alice Murrow, was in the chorus of "Music Man" at Woodminster Theater and now will be both singing and dancing in "Hello, Dolly," which opens Aug. 6. "Oliver" will begin Sept. 3. Lots of places to go all of a sudden. Still trying to make it to the Contra Costa Civic Theater's "Play It Again, Sam." Keep playing, Sam, we'll make it yet.

Area Caverns Contain History

Local scuffles and battles aren't considered very civilized nowadays, but they were commonplace around the time California was first settled.

If you're motoring around California this summer, you're likely to come across several memorable spots where battles took place. One of these spots is in the northeastern corner of California in Modoc County, says the National Automobile Club, just 15 miles southwest of Alturas.

Here, in this area, the Battle of the Infernal Caverns took place. Back in 1867 General George Crook and 65 soldiers engaged in a bloody battle with Pit, Paiute, and Modoc Indians who used the caverns as a natural fortress.

Although the last of the battle cries echoed through the caverns a century ago, those caves are still there, haunted with the memories of that gory battle.

Nervy Motorists

Of all the motorists around who have their nerve, two over in Fort Worth, Texas, sure "hang in there."

Recently they broke the law not once but twice in a row, reports the National Automobile Club, first in traffic and then brazenly right under the noses of policemen.

Busy with working off their traffic fines through washing and cleaning police vehicles in the police garage, they still found time for attempted robbery of tires, wheels, and gasoline from these vehicles.

The nervy ones were caught, arrested, and charged.

Herbert Townsend Named To Eagles' Flag Committee

Herbert Townsend of Albany has been named to the special Respect the Flag Committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles by Grand Worthy President Maynard Floyd, during the 73rd Annual Grand Aerie Convention at Boston, Mass.

The convention is in session Aug. 4-7, and H. Roe Bartle, former Mayor of Kansas City, will deliver the keynote address.

Floyd, a native of Wilmington, Ohio, stated when elected last year in Kansas City that his theme while in office would be "Respect to the Flag of the United States." He coined the slogan, "Raise the Flag and Keep it Flying," as part of that program.

Bob Hope, one of America's all-time great entertainers will be making one of his rare appearances at any fraternal convention when he addresses the Thursday night banquet.

Fellow entertainers Jimmy Durante, along with Frank Fontaine, Ray Bolger, Eddie Jackson and William Gargan will also give performances. Shirley Jones, film and television star, will be a guest of the Ladies Auxiliary. Earl Wilson, syndicated columnist, will address both groups.

Over $300,000 will be given in grants to various recipients throughout the country from the Eagles Cancer Fund and the Max Baer Heart Fund for research, and the Jimmy Durante Children's Fund for mentally retarded children.

Two well known members of Congress will address the convention. They are Henry B. Gonzales of Texas and John R. Dent of Pennsylvania, both members of the House of Representatives.

The popular sports banquet, with toastmaster Maurice Splain, Jr., of Pittsburgh, will again see many famous names from football, boxing and baseball present to recount their experiences.

The Friday morning Prayer Breakfast, with members of the clergy from all faiths, has been expanded to accommodate more people this year. It is again under the direction of its originator, Paul Connors of Port Angeles, Wash.

Saturday's huge parade will feature the best of Eagledom's marching units, including Ritual and Drum and Bugle Corp, that have won top prizes during the week and, again, will have a patriotic atmosphere.

Eyes and Night Driving

When the light of day gives way to the dark of night, even perfect eyes can see only 75 percent as well.

Although night-safety bugs wisely go all out for good car care and good driving performance, points out the National Automobile Club, many of them tend to neglect that important personal factor of eyes.

After they check their seeing aids to make sure they have clean windshield and windows, properly aimed headlights, and windshield wipers that operate without smearing, streaking, or slapping, they take the wheel and diligently follow the rules of the road.

They reduce their speed, increase distance between cars, guide their vehicles by viewing the right edge of the pavement, switch to low beams for oncoming cars, take frequent rest breaks.

Yet they forget such a simple matter as getting an eye check. Some of them have uncorrected nearsightedness or farsightedness. Others have astigmatism or beginning cataract. Still others have retinal disease or glaucoma. Such eye problems can be behind complaints about glare, a very dangerous condition for the driver.

If your vision doesn't seem to be as effective as it used to be, you might have one of these problems, in which case driving might not be advisable. Only an eye doctor, however, has the qualifications to make this decision. Perhaps he'll say that you need glasses. Then wear them at all times while driving.

How about sunglasses? It's true that they may reduce the glare of oncoming lights, according to NAC, but they also can cut your vision. The amount of light that reaches your eyes lessens if you wear sunglasses. So make sure that you never wear them at night.

By the way, sharpness of vision can also be reduced by such general health problems as diabetes and high blood pressure. If you're due for a physical, go to your family physician without delay. Protect your health and your precious vision along with it.

Eyes that bother you need immediate professional attention, especially if you want to continue driving. So be a night-safety bug in every respect, taking care that your eyes as well as your car and driving performance measure up to expectations. Remember that even perfect eyes can see only 75 percent as well at night.

Mechanics Bank Promotes Three to Assistant VP

Chairman E. M. Downer, Jr., announced three promotions following the meeting of the Board of Directors of The Mechanics Bank.

Gale R. Erickson, Stanley D. Loiseau, and Gerald L. Nelson have been advanced from Assistant Cashiers to Assistant Vice Presidents.

Mr. Erickson, a native of Tacoma, Wash., attended Albany High School, College of Marin, and American Institute of Banking.

His banking career started in 1950 as a bookkeeper. Working his way through most departments in the bank, he became head of the commercial operations in Head Office, including bookkeeping and transit. Gale was appointed Assistant Cashier in 1961. After some experience in the Real Estate Department, he was named Assistant Manager of the Mira Vista Office, was promoted to Manager of Civic Center Commercial Office, received more training in commercial banking at Home Office, and assumed his present position as Manager of San Pablo Office in 1968.

He is a member of the San Pablo Chamber of Commerce, Frank Canyon Men's Club, Board of Directors of the San Pablo San Juan Boys Club, and American Institute of Banking. He has worked on the Board of the American Red Cross, served as Treasurer of San Pablo Salvation Army, and was formerly a member of the Richmond Uptown Business Men's Association. Gale and his wife Betty reside in Albany.

A native of Colman, So. Dakota, Mr. Loiseau attended Richmond schools, Contra Costa College, and American Institute of Banking classes. He served in the Coast Guard during World War II.

He also started his banking career as a bookkeeper in 1946, working his way through the various departments until he became supervisor of the bookkeeping and transit departments in Head Office. Stanley was appointed Assistant Cashier in 1956 and was named Manager of the Civic Center Commercial Office. After gaining some experience in Public Relations at Home Office, he was assigned to the Albany Office as Manager. When the Mira Vista Office opened in 1964, Mr. Loiseau became its first Manager, a position he is currently holding.

Mr. Loiseau has served as Past President of West Contra Costa Council Camp Fire Girls, Richmond 20-30 Club, and Richmond Uptown Business Men's Association. He is presently a member of the Charter Review Committee of the City of Richmond, Board of Directors of the Mira Vista Golf and Country Club, Richmond Kiwanis Club, and American Institute of Banking.

Stanley and his wife, Shirley, live in Richmond and have two married daughters and two grandchildren.

Mr. Nelson, a native of Minnesota, attended schools in San Rafael, graduated from San Jose State, and took special courses through American Institute of Banking. He served his military commitment in the U.S. Army.

Starting as a Collector in the Civic Center Contract Office in 1952, Gerald Nelson received training in several offices as a lending officer before assuming the position as Manager when the El Cerrito Plaza Office opened in 1958. The following year, he was appointed Assistant Cashier. Five years later, he became Manager of Albany Office where he stayed for four years before being transferred to El Cerrito Office. In 1969, he took over his present position as Manager of the El Cerrito Office.

Mr. Nelson is serving on the Board of Directors of the Cerebral Palsy Center for the Bay Area and of the East Bay Chapter, National Safety Council. He is also a member of the Cerrito City Club, Mira Vista Golf and Country Club, and American Institute of Banking. He was co-chairman recently for a fund raising drive for the Contra Costa County Easter Seal Society.

Gerald and his wife, Glenda, reside in El Cerrito. He has one daughter and two sons.

Colorado Resident Visits California

Daniel M. Lefler of Boulder, Colo., has been visiting in California for the past six weeks. His maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lottie Moody Sandford of Albany met him at San Francisco International Airport. They went sightseeing around the Bay Area for 10 days, then spent a week in Hayfork visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee Montgomery (Danny's maternal aunt) and their 16-year-old son, Bruce. While there the two young men went on an eight-mile bike ride, explored some caves and later went on a two-day camping trip at Hymptom in the mountains.

Mr. Lefler, a newsboy in Boulder, saved his money for the trip which included five days in Disneyland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Sandford to Anaheim and she says they covered Disneyland systematically according to a plan of her grandson. She thinks they saw everything and rode on everything. They went early and stayed late, in fact two nights they were among the last of the crowd out the exit.

Troop 12 Winds Up Year

Winding up an outstanding year are the boys of Troop 12, Albany.

The weekend of May 1 the Scouts were selected by a group of civil defense leaders to participate in an air disaster drill at the Oakland airport. The Scouts received the special invitation on the basis of the impression the boys had made in the mock emergency disaster drill at Albany Hospital Feb. 3, 1971.

Also on the May 1 weekend, the entire troop went to Mt. Diablo for a camp-out. Invited as the troop's special guests were the Webelos from Marin Cub Pack 3 and Cornell Pack 107. A great time was had by all. So important and interesting was this to the boys that special transportation was arranged by the parents to take out a later group that were obligated to "Oklahoma" practice and Little League games.

Troop strength is growing as evidenced by the huge Tenderfoot group which was invested at the last Court of Honor. These Tenderfoot Scouts include David Corvello, Russell Klonsky, Carlos Pines, Bill Hamann, Glenn Morimoto, Kevin Pope, Jimmy Simmons, Charles Tronoff, Larry Van Eckhardt, Kendall Willis, Charles Hill, Kelly Fleming and James Haynes.

The troop participated in a Camporee at Big Trees Camp Chabot on May 23 and 24. Here the boys learned the art of real camping and competed in various events with other troops from the entire district.

We are getting to be a nice group of "Get Togethers" and let's keep it that way when we are going to the "Do Drop In" for World Affairs today, or "Our Get Together" tomorrow at 10:30. Friday at 10:00, is Community Service, and Sunday at noon are our conversations. Bring your "Smiles and Courtesy," plus lunch and enjoy yourselves.

Monday at 11:30, is Ogleby Party, Tuesday at 10:00, is Craft Class, and Wednesday at 1:00, are bridge lessons.

Do you remember our "Early Landmarks?"

Our "Lone" Albany Hill was situated by the shore of San Francisco Bay. Looking down the hill to old San Pablo (Saint Paul) road one was greeted by the large beds of blue lupine standing in contrast to thousands of golden poppies.

In the summer of 1891 a structure was built as the Peralta Park Hotel by Maurice Strelinger. He was known to the theatrical world from Poland as Maurice B. Curtis. A few months later Curtis had to give up his hotel.

The castle-like landmark then became Mrs. Sprague's School for Girls. Later it became a boys school known as "Professor Dunn's School for Boys." In the year 1903, it was taken over by the Christian Brothers and was known as Saint Joseph's Academy. Later it became Saint Mary's High School.

New National President For Nation's Boy Scouts

A Tacoma, Wash., business executive who remembers how he enjoyed signaling and camping as a Boy Scout in 1918, became president of the Boy Scouts of America at the Atlanta meeting of the National Council recently.

Norton Clapp, chairman of the board of the Weyerhaeuser Company, became head of the six million member youth organization and promised to keep to the objectives of the BSA, but to work in the continual modernizing of the program, according to Dr. Ted Cleveland, Mt. Diablo Council president, who attended the National Council annual meeting in Atlanta.

Joining with Cleveland at the Atlanta meeting were Vice President and Mrs. King Parker, Jr., of Alamo, Bill Evans from Concord, L. Eston Davis of Orinda, Justice A. F. Bray, Martinez, and Scout Executive and Mrs. Roger J. Bales of Berkeley.

"The new national president indicated that if we are to keep pace with our boys and young people, we must change with the times. Methods and programs that attracted boys to the BSA when our people still had a frontier mentality are no longer viable," Cleveland reported. "And in recent years we have undertaken the job of modernizing the program. It's a continuing job, and we will have to reevaluate our program constantly to meet the changing needs and desires of our young people."

Cleveland said that Mr. Clapp had served in several volunteer leadership capacities in Pasadena, Calif., and Tacoma, Wash., and has been closely related to council operation in Tacoma and Seattle since 1938. He has been a member of the National Executive Board and vice president since 1956.

Information on Arthritis Given

East Bay residents seeking information on arthritis may now use toll-free dialing to call the Arthritis Foundation, Northern California Chapter, in San Francisco, for the latest information on arthritis.

To use this new toll-free system, callers simply dial "O" for their local Operator and ask for ENTERprise 1-7687. The operator will then connect the caller, free of charge, to the San Francisco office of the Arthritis Foundation where free literature and other information on arthritis is available to the public.

Phillip G. Burns, executive director of the Northern California Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, explained that the toll-free line was established to meet the ever-increasing needs of Northern California residents who are now or may become stricken with arthritis. This new system is in effect for the following East Bay communities: Oakland, Berkeley, Albany, Kensington, Emeryville,

The problem of man and his environment is very much in the forefront these days. There is concern—rightly so—with the air we breathe, the purity of the water in our rivers and lakes, the ugly blot of pollution on so many of our resources.

What tends to be overlooked, the National Fire Protection Association reminds us, is the effect of destructive fire on our environment.

Anyone who has seen the aftermath of a fire which has wiped out a block homes housing a score of families, or gutted a plant employing hundreds of persons, can testify that fire is an important environmental factor. Pollutants destroy, and fire destroys—thousands of lives each year, and billions of dollars worth of our natural and man-made resources.

As with other kinds of pollution, the answer to the fire problem begins with individual actions and reactions. We must change the habits that so commonly cause fires—careless smoking, negligent handling of gasoline, for example. We must become intolerant of conditions that lead to fire—like defective heating equipment, frayed electric cords. We must take protective action—like pre-planning escape measures, never leaving children unattended.

Now is a time to remind ourselves that FIRE HURTS, both physically and financially. Above all, this is a time to realize that whether we have an environment free of destructive fire is largely up to us.

Two-Party Line Bows Out

Robert Walkup, a 30-year Albany resident who has been serving telephone customers as a PBX installer in the area for as many years, watched two-party line telephone service in his home community become a thing of the past.

Walkup was on hand at the Pacific Telephone central equipment office at 1612 Solano Avenue as his fellow telephone craftsmen made the final equipment adjustments to eliminate two-party service in Albany, effective July 1.

"During my telephone career, I've seen many improvements in service," Walkup said. "I saw full dial service become a reality; direct distance dialing speed calls from the East Bay across the nation; inauguration of Triline service; and Picturephone is just around the corner."

"One of the improvements provided for in the 1968 California Public Utilities Commission decision on telephone service is the elimination of two-party residence service in metropolitan area," Roger Healy, Albany telephone manager, said.

According to Healy, the City of Albany becomes one of the first communities in the Bay Area to receive this service improvement. Customers with the prefixes 524, 525, 526 and 527 were notified of the service change by letter or by an insert in their telephone bill.

Your telephone business office can provide information on the kinds of residence service now being offered to Albany customers. The telephone number is 843-9000.

Open House for Live Oak Center

Live Oak Center, 1301 Shattuck Avenue, will hold an Open House for all children in this year's Adventurers' summer program. This special activity will be presented today from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. There will be entertainment by the staff and the children; arts and crafts exhibits; demonstrations in gymnastics; and slides. There will also be an opportunity for parents to meet the staff and have an informal discussion regarding the program from 3:30 p.m. All interested Adventurers and parents are invited to attend.

Staff responsible for the 1971 Adventurers program include: Barbara Rydlander, coordinator; Joycelyn Marshall, Bob Nisiyama, Shella Seabrook, Ron O'Rourke, John Taylor, Mary Sexton, Craig Feied, Lisa Brenneis, Eve Bodinger, James Ikoma. This program is sponsored by the Berkeley Recreation and Parks Department.

Albany Little League's Senior Division and National League All-Stars were eliminated from tournament play after each team had gotten their share of the wins during the last week of July.

After having won their first three games, the Seniors lost their fourth and their bid for the District 45 area championship, to La Vista, 7-0, when Albany couldn't seem to get ahold of the game.

Tony Van Coops gave up four hits in five innings to be relieved by Mario Lavagnino for the sixth and seventh. Jim Allen, Brad Drennan and Jack Laufenberg each walked away with a single.

Albany Seniors beat Hayward American 2-1 in the first play-off game with Van Coops pitching a six hitter. Center fielder Drennan's triple and shortstop Dave Jaramillo's single were the only Albany hits. Hayward American's run was unearned.

In the second game, Union City remained scoreless watching Albany scoop up eight runs with a near perfect game for Mario Lavagnino. An error on Albany's second baseman permitted one Union City man reach second in the third inning.

Drennan started the action with a solo homer in the first inning, creating a good start towards the 11 Albany hits.

The third win for Albany was behind the pitching of Dan Gray who gave up two hits in the 2-1 win over Hayward West National. Rightfielder Jim Allen's second inning single was the only hit for Albany.

As the National League All-Stars hosted their first game on Friday, July 23, they were not too kind to the Ashland team as they eliminated them from further All-Star competition in a 5-3 win. The pitching team of Mike Robertson, Kurt Heffernon, the winner, and Ray Lavardure gave up a first and a third inning single as well as Ashland's three unearned runs. Centerfielder John Luty chalked up two of Albany's four hits. Shortstop Ken Torres and secondbaseman Raul Ybarra took one each.

In Albany's second and last game, Albany took a 3-0 first inning lead over Dublin Valley, who came back in the second with five runs and kept the lead, defeating Albany 9-5.

Mike Boyd went four innings, giving up seven hits. Ken Rosano tried for the save but it was too late.

Albany hitters were Ray Lavardure with two singles; Ybarra, one single; Luty and Boyd, two singles each; and Mike Robertson, one single.

Day or Two of Relaxation

Sight-seeing in Southern California, a region of natural wonders and historic places galore, can get a bit hectic.

To those of you who would enjoy taking off a day or two for just plain relaxation, National Automobile Club suggests that you seek out that beautiful combination of sand and surf at any of Southern California's many fine beaches.

To name just a few, Malibu, Manhattan, Hermosa, Redondo, and Laguna beaches all attract sun worshippers in large numbers. So build your sand castles. Run along the shore. Go surfing. Or whatever your heart desires.

After a day or two of relaxing on the beach, you're bright-eyed and ready for new sight-seeing adventures in Southern California.

DRIVERS GET INTO RUTS

Ruts are easy to fall into, especially where driving is concerned.

Drivers can carry on for years, making the same mistakes without even realizing that their driving is at fault. The National Automobile Club urges every driver to be honest with himself, to make an honest appraisal of his own driving techniques. A surprising number of driving points can be improved.

Today's highways require safe drivers.

300 Game

Albany Bowl Highlights

Two brilliant records were set here last week—namely a perfect 300 game by Lee Felix who lives in El Cerrito, and a tremendous 1014 four-game series rolled by Rich St. Germain in the 535 scratch trio league. He put together games of 236, 267, 257, and 254. Rich, being a resident of Albany, certainly is a lad to be proud of—he is carrying a 196 average and is improving all the time.

Other high scores in the 535 scratch trio were, George Nomura 874, Yosh Amino 868, Larry Stover 841, Jim Navarro, Jr. 838, Jack Wolhar 832, and Ralph Willis 831.

Lee Felix rolled his perfect game while participating in the Summer Doubles. His scores were 247, 300 and 213 for a whopping 760 three-game series. His partner, Jim Braley, cannot be overlooked either, as he came through with games of 211, 257 and 205 for a nice 673. Needless to say they topped first place in the July Summer Doubles eliminations with a fine 1507, beating out George Schaber and Bob Potter, who rolled 1452 between them, and Bud Lair and Ralph Willis with 1423.

The finals will be rolled at Midway Bowl this weekend. Jo Ale and Ralph Willis lead this month's qualifying round with 1457. The final month's roll-off is scheduled at Hi Score Lanes in Oakland in September.

505 Mixed Trio — John Taylor 246, 220, 192, 245—904, Paul Pilow 227, Marva Cremer 202, Edie Burcher 202, Karl Krusi 202, Ed Sousa 207, Rich Blume 210, Bill Beltz 214, Bert Rose 223, and Patty Oeats 242.

Gin Mill 4's league is being led by Michael's Bottle Shop with 23 wins, just edging out Office Roustabouts, who have 22 wins, and Cloud Nine, 21 wins, along with M&L No. 2, also with 21 wins. High series is being held by Harry Plant for the men and Marge Arndt for the women. High game, Dean Schakelford 247 (men) and Linga Golden 240 (women).

Men's Handicap league is currently headed by Esquire Barber Shop with 20 wins, Gin & Tonics 19, Packaging Co. No. 1 with 18, Team No. 3 also 18. High game and series—Craig Lacy, 232-601.

P.E.I. league is being led by The Boozers with 16 wins, followed by the Four Fives with 15 wins, also the Pin Pushers with 15 and the Ducky Rubbers are close behind with 14 wins.

International Award for Berkeley Braille Worker

Mrs. Paul DeGarmo, Berkeley Red Cross Braille volunteer and a Kensington resident nationally recognized for her work in braille music for the blind, was the recipient of the 1971 International Humanities Service Award given by the American Overseas Association.

The award was presented at a banquet held recently at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco in conjunction with the A.O.A. convention.

Music during the evening was performed by Bruce Breslau, now a senior at Oberlin College majoring in music. It was to supply this young musician with brailled music during his junior high school years here that Mrs. DeGarmo began her career in transcribing.

The A.O.A., composed of Red Cross workers who have served overseas, bestows its Humanities award annually "to honor human kindness, benevolence, and self-sacrifice rather than service to the political, scientific or educational fields. . . ." Only volunteer services are recognized, and special consideration is given those associated with Red Cross.

Notable Americans who have received the award in previous years include Bob Hope, Pearl Buck and George Mardikian. Recipients are chosen from among humanitarians all over the world, and only one award is presented each year.

Mrs. DeGarmo's most unique contribution to the blind was the authorship of a first-of-its-kind teaching manual for sighted transcribers of braille music. Entitled "Introduction to Music Transcription," the page volume was published by the Library of Congress and is now available without charge to volunteer brailists throughout the country. It was the result of eight years of work begun when Mrs. DeGarmo initiated and taught a braille music transcription volunteers at the Berkeley Red Cross.

Her book will result in a greatly increased supply of braille music and thus open new fields to blind people in the field, according to Mrs. DeGarmo, chairman of the Berkeley Red Cross braille department.

In addition to authoring the book, Mrs. DeGarmo has transcribed thousands of pages of braille music, been a teacher and lecturer on the subject, and served as volunteer music specialist for the California Transcribers and Educators the Visually handicapped.

She is affiliated with the Berkeley alumnae chapter of professional international sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon, was honored by that organization at its annual convention in Washington last August.
